Large type books are available to qualified visually impaired/disabled patrons. These library materials are delivered by mail, postage free, under the Americans with Disabilities Act. For more information call the library at (623) 974-2569 and ask for the homebound services representative.

- Contact the Audiovisual Coordinator about books on tape available to homebound library members.

How is the Library funded?

Sun City Library depends on monies from several sources: bequests from estates, fundraising events, donations, library card sales, used book sales, and fines and fees.

Do my taxes support the Library?

The Sun City Library, Inc. is a non-profit tax exempt 501(c)(3) corporation. The library receives no tax support.

- Donations of money and goods are tax deductible.
- Please remember the library when planning your wills and estates.

Ongoing Book Sale

The Sun City Library welcomes donations of clean materials in good condition. Books and audiovisual materials that are not placed in the collection are sold to raise money for various projects. The large selection of reasonably-priced materials found in the book sale area changes daily.
